

Entrepreneur Education for successful bio-Energy production

- 6 educational guides have been developed and are available at www.ampc.montana.edu

- Provide Montana producers with a working knowledge of the economic issues relevant to biodiesel production
- Provide these producers with tools to evaluate potential biodiesel opportunities
- To provide quality information about biodiesel production and use
- Curriculum – available on the web, 1-2 more educational guides to be developed.
- Training seminars held throughout the region and state.

